Special mention needs to be made of the trustees and the principal (Mickey Dada) of Nagreswadi School, whose support and cooperation for the event was held.

The first day of the delegates to Dr. Cyrus Poonawalla and IY Society members and IY Society members were taken on a guided tour of the place, which was followed by a luncheon in the auditorium for Dr. Cyrus Poonawalla and his son, Alice who graciously presented the three-day youth meet.

Jiyo Parsi Motivates Parsi Youth at FOZYA Meet

The Jiyo Parsi message was disseminated four years ago. A speech given by the eminent Jiyo Parsi (Shriji) was well received. It motivated the youth to think out of the box and gave them a boost in terms of their education. Dr. Jiyo Parsi's definition of being very great is being a Parsi who is motivated and motivated to be very great in the field of his or her own profession and in the field of his or her own profession.

A Parsi Club Debate was conducted by Dr. Jiyo Parsi, where the participants had to give their opinion on the topic: 'Is it better to be a Parsi or to be a Parsi who is motivated and motivated to be very great in the field of his or her own profession and in the field of his or her own profession?' The participants had to give their opinion on the topic. The participants had to give their opinion on the topic. The participants had to give their opinion on the topic.

Dr. Shivan Chavhan, IFFI 2013 President, thanked Dr. Poonawalla for his contribution, support and cooperation for the event. Catching up with old friends and making new ones!

Jehangir B. Mehta, 28, Oshana
The one thing I am interested in coming to the FOZYA Meet is that I get to meet new people from new places and cities. I hope to make new friends!

Hemadhar N. Vermana, 24, Mumbai
It's great to be here to meet new friends and have a great time!

Adil Dugal, 26, Pune
I've made a lot of new friends and met several good people over the years at different youth meets like IYF etc. Youth Meets become a short vacation and I get to catch up with old friends.

Varun Shavia, 19, Surat
I come to the FOZYA Meets to gain self-confidence and to communicate with Parsi youth from different parts of India, which is amazing.

Kalvan Dastoor, 23, Ahmedabad
The basic reason for me to keep going to the FOZYA Meets and never getting tired of attending even the Youth Meets is that there is no better feeling than meeting people of similar interests, who are strongly the day you meet them and become friends later. Moreover, if you are a professional then in that case you are likely to meet someone who has your field and thus you can get connected. And lastly the enjoyment and the feeling of bonding with this glorious community is truly special!

Varsha Bana, 22, Mumbai
This is my third FOZYA Meet and I absolutely love it. This time I had a dinner accident and broke my ankle and I now have a plaster. Normally people would rush back home after such an incident but I decided to stay on as I did not want to miss out on the fun! I'm sure by the end of this Meet I won't regret it. FOZYA is one of the best Parsi youth organizations I've known.

Farah Khambatta, Hyderabad
FOZYA Meets have always been very good in encouraging young Parsis to meet and interact with each other. I met my husband, Armaan, at one of the FOZYA Meets. Parsi is a very good platform for making new friends. Now I am a volunteer and an integral part of FOZYA.
